Sunday Evening

Christ-Led Families—What Do They Look Like?

7:00-8:00 p.m. (Steve & Teri Maxwell) (for the family)

What is a Christ-led family, and how is it different from other families? In this session, it will become obvious that the Lord doesn't use a cookie cutter, but there are similarities among Christ-led families. The fruit of a Christ-led family is sweet even though the journey may be challenging at times.

Break—8:00-8:15 p.m.

Practical Discipleship of Our Children

8:15-9:30 p.m. (Steve) (for families)

How well our children are disciplined in the Lord Jesus is at the heart of whether they will live for Him and be effective instruments in His hands. What are we willing to invest in the lives of our children? What are the daily aspects of disciplining the children in our home? Could the price be too high? Be encouraged and challenged in the task to which God has called each parent.

Monday Evening

Book tables will be open this evening before the conference, during the break, and afterwards.

Keepers at Home

7:00-8:00 p.m. (Teri) (for moms and daughters)

Titus 2:3-5 tells the older women to teach the younger women to be keepers at home. Many women have not grown up with a role model from whom they could learn the basics of being a Christian keeper at home. Married for thirty-two years and the mother of eight children, three of whom are adults, Teri Maxwell shares specifics from her personal experience in being a keeper at home. You can practically learn in this workshop from an older woman so that your home can be a spiritual, emotional, and physical haven.

Family Devotions Made Easy

7:00-8:00 p.m. (Steve) (for dads and sons)

Tried them and failed? Never tried because you knew it would be too big of a battle? No time for them even if you wanted to? Do any of these questions describe your experience with family devotions? Join Steve, father of eight, as he shares about the Maxwell family's favorite time of their day. Steve will give practical advice for achieving success in family devotions that he guarantees will work.

Break—8:00-8:15 p.m.

Keeping Our Children's Hearts for Christ

8:15-9:30 p.m. (Steve & Teri) (for the family)

This topic represents perhaps the greatest challenge every Christian parent faces. We want to raise children who become mature Christian men and women living their lives for Jesus Christ. Steve and Teri together share what they have gleaned from Scripture and applied in their home, as they have raised three children, now in their twenties, who never rebelled. They are applying the same principles with the younger five. This is a powerful session presenting exciting information that is vital to successful Christian parenting.
